Departmental Mission

The Department Mission of the Recreation Center is to offer facilities, equipment and services that provide opportunities for physical activity, leadership experience and education in order to promote the lifelong pursuit of recreational activities and healthy lifestyles. Through dedication to excellence and innovation in programming, the department embraces inclusiveness and contributes to the physical, social and intellectual development of ESU students. The Department strives to accomplish its objectives by:

- Providing a variety of structured and unstructured recreation and fitness opportunities for exercise, competition, and socialization.
- Designing programs and services based upon national standards and trends to enhance the student experience and celebrate the diversity of students, faculty, staff, and alumni.
- Creating a healthy and welcoming culture that values a fun, friendly, and healthy exercise environment.
- Maintaining and purchasing state of the art equipment to meet the preferences and technological needs of the students
- Providing employment and volunteer opportunities that promote personal growth, leadership skills, interpersonal relationships, career pursuits and co-curricular learning.
- Designing, maintaining and enhancing indoor and outdoor facilities that supports the ever-changing needs of students
- Working collaboratively with campus departments to advise student organizations and create programs to complement the academic experience.

Facility Mission

The purpose of the Recreation Center Department is to provide the ESU community with facilities that are dedicated to open recreation and supports the ever-changing exercise needs of students interested in maintaining healthy lifestyles. How to obtain a guest pass:Guest Check-in

1. Go to the membership service desk
2. The guest and member will be asked to fill out the guest form.
3. Members will have to present their Ecard and the guest will have to provide a picture ID with proof of age. Note: Only forms of ID accepted are Driver's License, College ID, Military ID, and Passport with current picture.
4. Both individuals must surrender their ID's to the staff member at the front desk. Cards will be clipped together and stored at the front desk.
5. Pay for the pass.
6. Enter the facility and have fun!

Guest Check-outID Return to Owner

- When either person has completed their visit to the facility both individuals must be present at the front desk. Only at that time will the cards be returned.
- Once the cards are returned:
 - If the member leaves, the guest must exit the building.
 - If the guest leaves, the member may choose to stay or exit the building.

ID NOT Returned to Owner

- If one of the individuals is not present at the time of exiting, neither card will be returned until the next business day between 10:00 am and 4:00 pm with the exception of Friday and Saturday.
- Cards left on Friday and Saturday can only be returned on the following Monday.
- Cards will only be returned to the owner of the individual card by the Director, Assistant Directors, or Graduate Assistants of the Recreation Center. It is highly recommended to call 570-422-2970 to ensure one of the aforementioned staff members is in the facility to return the ID(s).
- Members who violate the guest policies may lose guest sign-in privileges.

IdentificationGeneral

- All users of the Recreational Facilities must have an Ecard with a picture. To obtain a card, members must visit the Campus Card Center located on the lower level of the University Center between the hours of 8:30 am and 4:00 PM, Monday through Friday. NOTE: Although issued by the Campus Card office, temporary Ecards are not accepted as a form of ID.
- Ecard must be presented at each facility
- Cards must be presented upon request.
- False identification will be confiscated.
- Individuals who present false identification or whose Ecard is presented by another individual will be asked to leave and/or may lose Recreation Center privileges. E.g. Student passes his Ecard back to a friend behind him. Both parties will be asked to leave.

Forgotten/Invalid ID

If a member forgets his/her Ecard or the Ecard does not pass (e.g. bad suffix, bad swipe), the following procedure will be followed:

1. Member must present a valid photo ID. Only forms accepted are Driver's License, College ID, Military Id, Passport, or Ecard with current picture.
2. Facility Manager verifies eligibility and approves or denies access. Members are only permitted to forget their Ecard 5 times per semester.
3. Members are permitted to re-enter either facility the same day.

Recreation Center Terminology

Open Recreation: Times that members are able to access the various activity areas in the facility. Examples:

1. Open Recreation Volleyball: times students are able to play drop-in or pick-up volleyball on an arena court.
2. Group Fitness class is considered open recreation because it is open to all members.

Leagues: Sports leagues that are organized for students. Recreation Center League sports may include but are not limited to basketball, volleyball, and racquetball. Student members are the only eligible participants for this program.

Club Sports: Student organizations that are organized around a common sport and are recognized by the Student Activity Association, Inc.

Service Desk/Membership Service Desk: desks located at the entrance to the facility and in the fitness center that are staffed by Recreation Center employees.

Participant: Any member or guest who has checked in at the front entrance with either an Ecard or is signed in. This person is legally and properly entered the facility.

Member/ Recreation Center Member: East Stroudsburg University student, paid faculty, paid staff, paid alumni, or paid retiree. Please see the Membership Section for more details.

Group Fitness: open recreation fitness classes held weekly in the studio for any member to participate. Classes are designed for Recreation Center Members who are looking for an organized workout. Each class is lead by student instructors who have qualified to teach.

Court Shoes: Shoes that are designed for court sports. These include basketball, tennis, racquetball, volleyball, and cross trainers.

Drop-in Play: Open recreation times that areas are reserved for students to play pick-up in a particular activity. E.g. On an open recreation basketball court, six (6) random students are able to form a game of 3 versus 3 basketball.

Activity Area: Area in the facility that is identified for members use. Activity areas in the Recreation Center include: concourse, arena, racquet courts, fitness center, locker rooms, and elevated track.

Judicial Affairs: The primary focus of Judicial Affairs is to administer campus judicial procedures in support of the University's efforts to promote a disciplined community. Judicial Affairs encourages equality, dignity and mutual respect among members of the campus and the adjacent communities. Judicial Affairs serves students, parents, faculty and staff as well as the University's community constituents to address student conduct issues by:

- Assisting in the development, dissemination, interpretation and enforcement of campus policies;
- Ensuring that the student's right of due process is applied fairly, consistently and effectively;
- Collaborating with University and community constituents to address student behavioral issues;
- Providing leadership opportunities for students participating in the disciplinary process;
- Offering learning opportunities for student violators of campus policies and regulations;
- Initiating preventative educational activities that address conflict and potential violations of campus policies.

General Policies

Conduct Code

Participants, members and guests are expected to:

- Be courteous to other facility users
- Follow building/area rules and instruction from the staff of the Recreation Center Departmental.
- Uphold the values of good sportsmanship. The use of vulgar, obscene, abusive, derogatory and demeaning comments and/or gestures will not be tolerated.
- Wear appropriate workout clothing that does not convey any profane and/or bigoted messages, identified by facility signs, and outlined in the Recreation Center's policies and procedures.
- Refrain from disrespectful, dangerous, and unsanitary behaviors. (Example: foul language, fighting, spitting in the facility including water fountains, etc.)
- Respect the experience of other members by not using personal radios unless they are used with headphones.

Participants in violation of the conduct code will be asked to leave. Serious incidents or repeat abusers will be subject to sanctions under the East Stroudsburg University's disciplinary system. Sanctions may include, but are not limited to: suspension from the facility, revocation of membership privileges, student disciplinary sanctions, civil prosecution and others.

Fee paying members who are suspended will not have portions of their fees refunded.

The staff is trained to treat all users with respect. In turn, the Recreation Center staff expects to be treated with respect.

Teams, Groups, or Organizations

- In the arena, a group or organization is not permitted to monopolize any court(s) without a reservation. During open recreation, all assigned courts are available for any student to drop-in to play.
- Varsity teams are not permitted to reserve space for athletic practice or competition. A varsity athlete is permitted to use the building as an individual student.
- In the fitness center and on the track, students are not permitted to workout in a group of more than four (4) people, nor may a team, group or organization have more than 2 groups of students using the center.
- Students not following the above guidelines may be asked to leave the facility or may have their membership suspended and/or sanctions may be brought against the organization, team, or group.
- Examples of group or organization may include: club sport, League team, fraternity, sorority, student club, etc.

Assumption of Risk

- Users assume a risk of injury or even death while participating in recreational activities.

- All participants are strongly urged to have regular medical check-ups and carry complete health insurance coverage that includes dental and vision. Members may be required to show evidence of health insurance coverage.

Injury

- The Recreation Center Departmental staff is trained in basic first aid and CPR. If an injury occurs, users are asked to seek assistance from the nearest Recreation Center employee.
- If an ambulance is necessary, the Recreation Center Department staff will contact the university police and implement emergency response procedures. Recreation Center employees will not transport injured victims. In any injury situation, the injured person (when possible) and any witnesses will be asked questions for an incident report.
- Recreation Center employees are not trained to give preventative first aid such as wrapping/taping joints or giving ice for sore muscles. Individuals requiring such aid are advised to seek professional attention.
- All participants are financially responsible for all expenses related to injuries and emergency care.

First Aid

- First Aid Kits are located behind the service desks. The kits are for minor injuries and are not supplied for preventative applications.
- Automated External Defibrillators (AED) are located on the wall in next to the main entrance service desk in both facilities. They are lifesaving device that should not be played or tampered with to keep in perfect working order in the case of an emergency.

- Groups that are lower on the list of usage priority will not be “bumped” by higher-level groups once they are scheduled. If two (2) or more groups are simultaneously requesting the same time period, usage priority is in effect.

Reservation Limitations

- This activity area cannot be reserved for open recreation use.
- No organization will be able to reserve all four (4)-arena courts during one particular time.
- Only members may be invited to programs and events that are reserved in the Recreation Center.
- Reservations will only be accepted for activities or events that meet the inherent design of the facility.
- Open recreation times for volleyball will be scheduled each semester.

- Tennis Court: courts may be reserved to play. Please see “Racquetball Reservations” for the process.

Reservation Procedures

- All requests should be submitted in advance to allow for sufficient time to implement the event. Ongoing reservations should be made prior to the start of each semester.
- How to Reserve:
 1. Go to the membership service desk.
 2. Obtain a facility reservation request form and fill it out completely (An incomplete reservation will not be accepted).
 3. The Director of the Recreation Center will contact the organization’s representative, set up a meeting to discuss the details, and give the representative a written approval or denial for the event.
 4. If accepted:
 - a. Arrive on the approved day and check-in with the Membership Services Desk. NOTE: be sure to bring the approved form.
 - b. The Recreation Center staff will set up the requested facility equipment

Racquet Courts (Racquetball, Squash and Wallyball) (MRC)
