Learn More About Graduate School, 5 p.m., Wednesday, Oct. 10, Kemp Library, First Floor in the Computer Lab.

Your interest and success with a particular discipline may lead you to personal satisfaction and the chance to broaden your experience and expertise in graduate school. Today, graduate school opportunities throughout the world are diverse. If you have interest in a specific field of study, exploring the option of attending graduate school will be beneficial. Learn the importance of deciding which school to attend. Includes tips for presenting a successful application and obtaining funding. Presenter: Chris Landino.

"Keys to Success in College and Life" 7 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 11, in the Keystone Room. Dr. Will Keim is known for empowering and motivating individuals and organizations to be more productive, encouraging them to operate with personal and organizational beliefs, and to make character-driven decisions in their daily life. Dr. Keim is coming to ESU to inspire students to become more responsible and make life-giving and empowering choices within the areas of scholarship, community service, peacemaking, character-driven decision making, substance abuse resistance and education, parental relations, and other important areas. Students will have the opportunity to learn how to make a master calendar of their academic responsibilities, make an ethical decision, time management, and improve to live a healthy and wellness centered life. For further information contact ATOD Prevention Services at apatascher@esu.edu. Open to the public at no cost.

Comic Thon 12-Hour Comic Event, Noon to Midnight,
Saturday, Oct. 13, in the Fine and Performing Arts Building
(Studio Rooms 103 and 102). Local artists, art enthusiasts and/or comic book lovers who want to test their creativity and push their artistic limits are invited. David Mazure, comic book artist and assistant professor of art, will provide instruction and assistance for novices and amateurs. The $5 registration fee, which includes all supplies necessary to create a comic book, is a donation to the Student Art Association (SAA). Participants are also welcome to bring their own supplies. Space limited to 50 participants. To reserve a space, email David Mazure, the SAA adviser, at: dmazure@esu.edu or call 570-422-3612.

ESU's Graduate and Professional Student Association
(GPSA) Meeting, 2 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 16, in Zimbar-
Liljenstein Hall Second Floor Conference Room. The Graduate & Professional Student Association (GPSA) seeks to enhance the advanced learning, research, scholarship, leadership and professional service experiences of graduate and professional students at ESU. GPSA will serve as a forum for graduate students to share opportunities and concerns they experience as students at ESU. GPSA will also empower members to suggest opportunities for student activities and recommend solutions to current issues to enhance the graduate student experience at ESU. If you are unable to attend but are interested in participating, please contact Jamie Thomas at jthomas1@live.esu.edu.

Free HIV/STD Information Sessions on Campus, 7 p.m., Tuesday, Oct. 16 in Linden Hall. ESU's Community Health Organization (CHO) has partnered with Co-County Wellness Services to provide these sessions.

Physician Assistant Panel Discussion, 6 - 8 p.m.,
Thursday, Oct. 18, in Sci. & Tech. 117. Attend a question and answer discussion forum about the healthcare profession of a Physician Assistant (PA). A panel of graduate students currently pursuing Master of Science in PA Studies degrees at Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine will discuss and answer questions about admission to PA graduate programs, life in graduate school, and the role of a PA. For more information, contact Janine Umberger at jlu9876@live.esu.edu. Sponsored by the Pre-PA Club.

11th Annual National Touring Film Festival (LUNAFEST®),
4 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 18, in Beers Lecture Hall.

LUNAFEST® is the fundraising film festival dedicated to promoting awareness about women's issues, highlighting women filmmakers, and bringing women together in their communities. Hosted by the East Stroudsburg University President's Commission for Women and ESU's Women's Center. All proceeds from LUNAFEST will benefit the Breast Cancer Fund and The Lucy Fund for Metastatic Breast Cancer Research in memory of Dr. Lucy Stanovick, an ESU English professor who lost her life to metastatic breast cancer in August 2012. Please contact Dr. Andi McClanahan, amclanahan@esu.edu, 570-422-3697, or Dr. Paula Parker, pparker@esu.edu, 570-422-3874 with questions.

Oktoberfest, 2 - 4 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 18, in the Keystone Room. Come and join the German Club for its second annual Oktoberfest celebration. There will be authentic German food, beverages (non-alcoholic), fun games, traditional Bavarian attire, raffles to win. Live music performance by "The Jolly Rheinlanders," and more. Free admission. University Leadership/University Service Award:

Applications are now available for those who are graduating in December, 2012. These awards are the highest non-academic honors a graduating senior can receive for work as a leader in extra-curricular activities on campus or in participation in activities and services on and off-campus. Applications are available from the Student Activity Association office on the second floor of the University Center and must be returned by Friday, October 19. For those graduating in May 2013, there will be another application process with a March 15, 2013 deadline.

LUNAFEST® Second Showing, Noon, Saturday, Oct. 20 at the Pocono Community Theatre in East Stroudsburg. Co-hosted by The President's Commission for Women and the Women's Center.

Second-Annual Jazz Party at Zoot Fest, Noon - 6 p.m., Sunday, Oct. 21, in the Keystone Room. The jazz party will again honor saxophone partner Zoot Sims and Al Cohn, and serves as a major fund-raising event for ESU's Al Cohn Memorial Jazz Collection and community outreach partner, COTA CampJazz. Zoot Fest and Library Alive concerts are part of the ESU Jazz Synergy Series. For more information, visit www.jazzatesu.com call 570-422-3828, or send email to alcohncollection@esu.edu.

Math Competency Test, 2 p.m., Thursday, Oct. 25, in Abeloff Center for the Performing Arts. Sign up by contacting Christine Getz at ext. 3447 or cgetz@esu.edu. Sample questions are available on the math department web page.

Diwali – Festival of Lights 2012, 5:30 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 3, in the Keystone Room. The word "Diwali" is the modern version of the Sanskrit word "Deepavali" which means rows of light and so the celebrations are often referred to as the "Festival of Lights." The festival symbolizes the triumph of good over evil and focuses on appreciating the goodness in everyone – friend or foe. Diwali festivals are celebrated by a billion people in South Asia and elsewhere in the diaspora annually. For more information or to purchase tickets, contact Dr. Pats Neelakantan, department chair and professor of economics at 570-422-3002, pats@po-box.esu.edu or Dr. Seewoonundun Bunjun, professor emeritus of economics at 570-422-3240, shiv43@gmail.com.

Secondary Education Majors – Screening dates for the 2012 fall semester have been set and are Tuesday, Oct. 23 and Wednesday, Oct. 24. Sign up by appointment only – in Stroud 209 PSED office. You must in appear in person to make an appointment in order to confirm that you have met the proper graduate and undergraduate requirements.

Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities – Applications are Now Available. After 79 years of serving higher education, Who's Who remains one of the most highly regarded and long-standing honors programs in the nation. Those selected for Who's Who are juniors, seniors or graduate students, active participants in collegiate extra-curricular activities and the community and maintain a minimum of a 3.0 GPA. If you would like to be considered for East Stroudsburg University's 2013 Who's Who, you can pick up an application from the Student Activity Association office on the second floor of the University Center. Deadline for returning completed applications is Friday, Oct. 12.
