Announcements

mtvU – The premier college television station for news, sports and music videos, is available in the University Center Food Court, Dansbury Commons and Channel 17 of the campus cable system. Watch it daily for announcements of upcoming programs and events at ESU!

Get Free Newspapers – Student can get FREE copies of The New York Times, USA Today, The Philadelphia Inquirer and the Pocono Record in the University Center lobby and the first floor of Stroud Hall. Simply swipe your eCard. Your eDollar accounts will not be charged. This is part of the USA Today Collegiate Newspaper Readership Program and is sponsored by the Student Senate.

Attention All Funded Student Organizations – Budget Workshops will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 5 and at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 6 for all organizations interested in receiving a Student Activity Association allocation for 2013 – 2014. Both workshops will be held in Stroud Hall Room 113. You must attend one of the workshops to receive your budget submission information. Budget submission deadline is at 4 p.m., Monday, February 18. If you have questions, contact the Student Senate Office at 570-422-3417.

Leadership Teleconference Series – “Principled Leadership: In the Face of Change and Crisis,” at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 5 in Beers Lecture Hall. Featuring Rudy Giuliani, renowned 107th Mayor of New York City (1993-2001). Giuliani reduced the overall crime and murder rate to make New York City the safest large city in America. Just when New Yorkers were beginning to enjoy the city’s revitalization, the unimaginable hit on 9-11. Giuliani swiftly marshaled his remarkable leadership skills to pull his city, and perhaps the entire nation, through the crisis. Sponsored by the Office of Student Activities. For more information, call 570-422-3429.

Student Trustee Applications: Eligible students who are interested in the position of student trustee must submit an application and two letters of recommendation no later than Feb. 4, 2013. Applications are available in the president’s office, 204 Reibman Administration Building or online at www4.esu.edu/about/administration/president/council\_of\_trustees\_application.cfm. Resume Building Workshop, 3 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 5 in Stroud 220. What are employers and graduate schools looking for? Develop an understanding how to write a resume that is appropriate for your career path. If you have never written a resume before or are having trouble putting one together, this workshop is for you.

Career Fair Preparation 4 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 5 in Stroud 220. When there are hundreds of companies and thousands of job seekers, how do you stand out in the crowd? Come and learn how to make the Career and Internship Fair work for you! Empower yourself with an effective Elevator Pitch - engaging questions, an abundance of confidence, and a strategic action plan that’s designed to separate you from the competition and potentially transform opportunities into offers.

Graduate & Professional Student Association (GPSA) Meeting, 2 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 5 in the University Center, Room 206C. GPSA seeks to enhance the advanced learning, research, scholarship, leadership and professional service experiences of graduate and professional students at ESU. GPSA will serve as a forum for graduate students to share opportunities and concerns they experience as students at ESU. GPSA will also empower members to suggest opportunities for student activities and recommend solutions to current issues to enhance the graduate student experience. All registered students are eligible to participate in GPSA, with the understanding that it focuses on aspects of graduate student life at ESU. If you are unable to attend but you are interested in participating, please contact Adam Demetros at ademetros@live.esu.edu, or visit the GPSA Facebook page at www.facebook.com/#!/GPSAESU?fref=ts and leave a message.

Study Abroad

A Great Opportunity to Study and Travel in China This Summer and Earn ESU Credits! Our ESU summer program in China will be offered again in 2013. Based at our partner university, Shenyang Normal University, in northeast China, the program is scheduled to run from May 25 through June 19, 2013.

Wenjie Yan, Ph.D., who has successfully run the program for seven consecutive summers, will teach Chinese 1 (FLCH 116) again through the program. Joining him is Ken Mash, Ph.D., who will teach Politics in Asia (POLS 230). No prior knowledge of the Chinese language is required to take either class.

In addition, you will visit many well-known cultural sites in China. They include the Imperial Palace in Shenyang, the Great Wall and the Forbidden City in Beijing, and the Shaolin Temple and the Longmen Grottoes in Henan Province.

It will be an exhilarating once-in-a-life-time experience. If you are interested, please contact Dr. Yan at wyan@esu.edu. You are also encouraged to attend either one of the two informational sessions. The first session is at 3 p.m. Feb. 12 in Room 206 AB of the University Center. The second session is at 3 p.m. Feb. 19 in Room 213 of the University Center.
