Smith-McFarland Theatre

The Goat or Who is Sylvia?

by Edward Albee

directed by Susan O'Hearn

scenic and costume design by Yoshinori Tanokura

lighting design by Benajamin Weill

Winner of the 2002 Tony and Drama Desk awards, The Goat or Who is Sylvia? is a dark comedy that focuses on the limits of an ostensibly liberal society. In a play featuring a family in crisis, playwright Edward Albee challenges audience members to question their own morality in the face of social taboos. New York Times critic Ben Brantley noted, "Four decades after Virginia Woolf sent shock waves through the mainstream theater, Mr. Albee still asks questions that no other major American dramatist dares to ask."

Recommended for mature adults only.

General admission, $12;

Faculty/staff and senior citizens (with ID), $10; Students (with ID), $7. For information or ticket reservations, please call 570-422-3483, ext. 4 or email esuarts@esu.edu.

COURSES PENDING APPROVAL by the University-Wide Curriculum Committee. Descriptions are available upon request in the office of the committee chair in the English Department (Stroud 309). Address questions within 10 university calendar days after first appearance.
