ESU Invites the General Public to Attend a Sky Show, Titled "The Stars of Spring" and a Feature Show, "Passport to the Universe," at 7 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Fri., April 19 in the McMunn Planetarium in the Warren E. '55 and Sandra Hoeffner Science and Technology Center. "Stars of Spring" describes what can be seen in the heavens during the spring months. The feature show, "Passport to the Universe," narrated by two-time Academy Award winner Tom Hanks, treats the audience to realistic close-up views of star fields and planets, taking them on an exhilarating flight through a virtual re-creation of our universe. The program is open to the general public at no cost, but reservations are required due to limited seating. Reservations will be taken online starting at 8 a.m., April 15, on a first-come, first-serve basis at www.esu.edu/planetarium. Group inquiries should send an email request to stardomes@esu.edu. A schedule of planetarium shows for the spring 2013 semester is posted at www.esu.edu/planetarium.
