ESU is Partnering with James Barchesi, Founder of Worksite Financial, to Offer the Focused Financing Seminar Series. The series consisting of two seminars on helping entrepreneurs gain financial footing and achieve funding success will be held at the Innovation Center, 562 Independence Road, East Stroudsburg, Pa. 18301.

SEMINAR 1: Go Fund Yourself

Thursday, June 6 from 5:30 p.m. - 7 p.m.

This seminar focuses on a high level overview of the landscape of funding and accounting for businesses navigating today's financial climate. A historical overview of traditional business financing kicks off the discussion, followed by an analysis of evolving trends in capital investment and their impact on marketing your company to prospective stakeholders to secure the funding you need for future growth.

If you have any questions please contact Carter McClure, manager, Business Accelerator Program at cmclure2@esu.edu or at 570-422-7953.

ESU Partners with Marywood University to Offer a Master of Social Work. In response to a growing demand for social workers with graduate degrees, Marywood University in Scranton, Pa., will partner with ESU to begin offering a Master of Social Work program on the ESU campus this fall. The new satellite program will be known as Marywood's Pocono Program at East Stroudsburg

University of Pennsylvania. Key stakeholders from ESU and Marywood will participate in a signing celebration to mark their new joint venture on Friday, June 14 at 1 p.m. in the ESU Innovation Center, located at 562 Independence Road, East Stroudsburg, Pa. Those interested in attending should RSVP by June 11 to Tonderlera Ragin at 570-422-3570 or tragin@esu.edu.
