Students will become proficient in Kouzes & Posner's 5 Practices of Exemplary Leaders by attending multiple L.E.A.D. programs and will be recognized with certification as an ESU Leader. Those students will have the opportunity to continue to grow within the L.E.A.D. program throughout their career at ESU by facilitating future programs, attending conferences, or other leadership development programs. The breakdown on certification requirements are as follows:

3 Collaborative Leadership Workshops
6 SLC (Student Leadership Challenge) Workshops: Once a month
2 LEAD Specialties: Once a semester
2 Civic Leadership Events: Once a semester

Collaborative Leadership Workshops:
These workshops teach students how to be better leaders or refine their skills in group or organizational settings. These workshops include: Building a Mission & Vision, Multicultural Leadership, Parliamentary Procedure, etc.

SLC Workshops:
L.E.A.D. will provide one SLC a month that focuses on Kouzes and Posner’s 5 Practices of Exemplary Leaders. Once a month, students will learn about one of the practices and apply it to their leadership experience now.

L.E.A.D. Specialties:
Specialties are annual programs that are provided by multiple entities at ESU from the National Society of Leadership and Success, Career Development, SAA, etc. Some examples of these events are: Etiquette Dinner, Book Discussion, Leadership Transition Luncheon, and much more

Civic Leadership Events:
L.E.A.D. will provide suggestions of ESU or East Stroudsburg borough service opportunities for our leaders. In order to be a great leader, you must be willing to serve and give back. Examples include: Pink Light Walk, March of Dimes, Relay for Life, etc.

BENEFITS:
- A Warriors LEAD! stole for graduation (with completion of the full program)
- Enhanced employment and advancement potential
- Valuable contacts with peers, faculty, staff, alumni, and leaders in government, business, and service agencies
- Invitation to recognition reception

If you are interested in becoming a part of the program, please fill out the application attached or email Jazmyn Pulley, Assistant Director of Student Activities, at jpu@esu.edu. Applications can be returned to the SAA office, 223 University Center addressed to Jazmyn.
Warriors LEAD! Application

Name ________________________________________________________________

ESU e-mail____________________________________________________________

Local Address__________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

Local Phone (___) ______________________

Involvement on Campus:

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

How will this program help your leadership:

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________

______________________________________________________________________